

Mrs. M. F. Allen and Mrs. W. Mont Perry left to attend the funeral. Miss White was an aunt of William M. and Edward F. Perry and was quite well known here in Park City, where she had visited on numerous occasions. She was over 80 and had the distinction of being the first white teacher in the schools of Ottawa county, Michigan.

Miss Elsie Gans and Miss Daisy Newhouse of Kansas City, depart Tuesday for the east, after passing the summer with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ganz.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Morris of Denver are spending their honeymoon with friends in Salt Lake City.

Miss Edith Matthews resumes her studies this week at Marlborough school, in Los Angeles, Cal.

Professor N. P. Gage, who is connected with the public schools of Washington, D. C., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Hobbs. He is en route to California.

Dr. Charles Garrison, after a year's absence in New York, is welcomed by his many friends in this city.

Mrs. Herbert McKenzie of Evanston for Helena, Mont. She has been the guest during the week of the Misses Shearman.

Mrs. Helen Sablin-Brown, an accomplished musician of Chicago, who is returning home from a trip through the Yellowstone, is the guest of Mrs. Percy Soumers-Cocks.

Miss Rose Joseph, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Joseph, left yesterday for Indiana.

Mrs. Thomas Marionneau and daughter, Dorothy, are guests of Mrs. George W. Snow, at 1900 South Ninth east street.

Miss Claudia Schmler has returned from a visit of two months with relatives and friends in San Francisco and Oakland.

Miss Elizabeth McIntire leaves soon for Washington, where she will enter school.

Mrs. J. T. Scovell left Friday evening for her home in Terre Haute, Ind., after a pleasant visit with her mother, Mrs. J. N. Melton.

Professor and Mrs. George B. Sweazey, who have spent the past year in Europe, have returned to the city.

Telluride Journal: Mrs. John B. Ingram of Salt Lake, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. O. N. Davis the past ten days, went north on the morning train en route to her home in Zion.

The Elite Social club met Thursday evening with Mr. Horace Altice. The object of the meeting was to reorganize the club after its partial disbandment for the summer, and to elect new officers for the coming season. After a short business session, the club members were rendered and the club adjourned to meet with Mr. Warburton on Sept. 26.

A masquerade party was given by Miss Winona Smith on Friday evening at her home, 610 East South Temple street. The party was brilliantly illuminated with Chinese lanterns. Music was furnished by the Poulton and Colburn quartet. At 12 o'clock refreshments were served and the dancers unmasked. The guests and the characters they represented were: Miss Lena McIntire, ballet dancer; Miss Jessie Ladd, flower girl; Miss Kittie Hunt, skirt dancer; Miss Dorris Goodwin, the belle; Miss Edna Ladd, Queen of Spades; Miss J. Martin, Queen of Clubs; Miss Mavis Carter, a nobleman; Miss Edna Ladd, a Spanish lady; Miss J. Earl, a knight; Miss Vera Needham, Queen of Hearts; Miss Bertha Edwards, Queen of Diamonds; Miss Edna Ladd, a banker; Lady Macbeth; Miss Belle McCulloch, Lady Venetia; Mr. Henry Welby, Romeo; Mr. Norman Needham, Rastor; the Bag-time Cook; Mr. Arthur Freese, Sitting Bull; Mr. Henry Clausen, One-eyed Charlie.

A very pleasant children's party was given yesterday afternoon by Mrs. M. A. Johnson, at her residence, 487 First street. The party was for her little 2-year-old grandson, Jeddie Blaine Pratt. The afternoon between the hours of 4 and 6 was devoted to games and amusements and a most enjoyable time was passed by the little ones.

Those at the party were Bessie Beck, Leon, Leonie, and Charles; Frazier, Clyde Davidson, June Buckle, Ivy Buckle, Beatrice Gavell and Amy Whitney.

Mrs. B. Hope Leigh of Glard, Ill., and Mr. C. B. Thompson of Urchessville, O., were married on the 13th inst. at the rectory of Rev. W. H. Alford, the bride being on a visit to her aunt, Mrs. Hornbuckle of Willard court.

Miss Arly Pike was the hostess at a Dutch supper given Wednesday evening at her residence, 487 First street. The color scheme of the evening was purple, the decorations, consisting of runners of purple ribbon, being stretched over the long dining table. The centerpiece was of duchesse lace over purple, with a heart of pink and white stars. The place favors were chrysanthemums of tissue paper of different colors, which the ladies later placed in their hair and which the men used as boutonnieres. A most enjoyable time was spent and the evening voted a jolly affair. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Alford, Miss Stevenson, Miss Welby, Miss Carter, Miss Alford, Miss Annie Pike and Messrs. Parsons, Diehl, Boyde, Griffin, Lippman, Dr. Paul and Dr. Donohue.

Miss Lillian N. Slade is entertaining Miss Wyan of New York.

Miss Frankie Mansfield and Miss Marcella Lawson will be in Salt Lake on Monday morning from Salt Lake City, to visit for a short time with friends.

Kinman D. Folsom, returned from New York last Monday, bringing with him his diploma from Cornell.

Miss Emma McClain, daughter of Rev. Josiah McClain, left Friday evening for Terre Haute, Ind., where she will enter upon a three years' course in the state normal. The best wishes of many friends accompany her.

Mrs. L. K. Bishop of Grand Rapids, Mich., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Walter G. Tuttle, of 363 First street.

Mrs. C. H. Scheu and family depart this week to spend the winter in California.

Mr. F. H. Fields leaves today for New York.

Mrs. Richmond Smith of Reno, Nev., is the guest of Mrs. C. L. Knight.

Miss Jordan of Kansas City, who has been the guest of Mrs. Curtis L. Knight, left for her home on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Forrester, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Richardson, Mrs. L. B. Moore and Mrs. Phil Nader have departed to spend a month in touring the east.

Miss Leo Trent has returned from California, where she has been passing her summer vacation.

Mr. David Harold Eldredge left on Wednesday to resume his musical studies in New York.

Mr. Lawrence Fox left Thursday for Colfax in Andover, Mass. He was accompanied by his sister, Miss Jessie

Fox, who goes to Miss Brown's school in New York.

Miss Mary Young, New York, is visiting relatives in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Post, Miss Jewett, Dr. and Mrs. Pfouts and Mr. Fieles returned Tuesday evening from Yellowstone park.

Miss Helen Allen left on Friday for Cleveland, O., to resume her studies in the woman's college of the Western Reserve university.

Mr. and Mrs. Beard and Miss Murray left yesterday to spend the autumn in their old home in Kentucky.

Mrs. Thomas Watson and children have gone to John M. Watson in Denver, where they expect to make their future home.

Mrs. Andrew W. Dowd of Sunnyside is with her aunt, Mrs. John Sharp, for a two weeks' visit.

Mrs. M. Kirkpatrick and daughter, Miss Ruth Kirkpatrick, are home, after a visit of six weeks in Butte, Mont.

Mrs. James Anderson leaves this week to spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. William Hutton, in Sacramento, Cal.

Miss Lucille Jennings leaves today for Logan, where she will enter the Agricultural college.

Mrs. Edward S. Perry and Mrs. Mabel McClure will return the latter part of the week from San Francisco, where they have been spending the summer.

Mrs. William J. Dinwoodey will spend the month of October in the city visiting Mrs. Henry Dinwoodey.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Dallas leave tomorrow for a six weeks' trip to Chicago, Buffalo and other eastern cities.

Mrs. John Ingram has returned from Telluride.

Mrs. S. Deamue, who has been visiting her granddaughter, Mrs. F. C. Kelley, has returned for her home in Galesburg, Ill. She will spend a few days in Denver en route.

Mr. J. F. Evans of the Rio Grande Western railway left Tuesday for Denver. Mrs. Evans will join him in a week or two, when they will make that city their future home.

Mrs. Percy O. Perkins, who has been the guest of her mother, Mrs. Frolsch, during the summer, has returned to Omaha.

Mrs. George Hickey has gone to Idaho for a month's visit. She expects to spend the winter in Canada.

Mrs. Mulock and Miss Mulock of Denver are at the Fifth East hotel.

Miss Schilling of Memphis, Tenn., who has been summering in Salt Lake City, has returned to her home.

Mrs. Terry of Park City was a guest of her daughter, Mrs. Hancock, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. D. N. Straup and children have returned from South Bend, Ind.

Mrs. Sells and Miss Morehead, accompanied by Mrs. Croxall of Logan, left Wednesday evening for Europe.

Mrs. David Evans leaves for Chicago this week to buy the furniture for her new home. She will also spend two or three weeks at the Buffalo exposition.

Mr. and Mrs. J. McMullen left last Thursday for a month's visit in Chicago and other eastern cities.

Engagement Announced.
Mr. and Mrs. David Keith announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Etta Aloysia Keith to Mr. Richard Keith of Salt Lake City. The wedding will take place early in the spring.

Marriage Licenses.
During the week the following permits to wed were issued by the county clerk of Salt Lake county:

John Graham, Salt Lake City, to Elida Beck, Lehi, Utah.

Ellen Walker, Big Cottonwood, to Herbert T. Miksel, Salt Lake City.

Thyra Sorenson, Richfield, to Joseph H. Brydson, Salt Lake City.

Mary E. I. Salt Lake City, to Carl Sealander, Richfield, Utah.

Byron C. Healy, Highland, to George E. Robertson, Salt Lake City.

Estella Williams, Salt Lake City, to Herbert Van Dam, Salt Lake City.

Richard Van Dine, Salt Lake City, to Anna J. Valbert, Brigham, Utah.

John F. Newcomb, Salt Lake City, to Charles H. Thompson, Salt Lake City.

William L. Butterworth, Wilford, to Eliza E. Howick, Wilford.

Nora Strann, Walla Walla, Wash., to W. F. Rydahl.

OGDEN.
The wedding of Charles Henry Stevens and Miss Mary Emory Harrington occurred Wednesday evening and attracted unusual interest. The bride is a well known vocalist and the groom a rising young member of the Stevens family.

The bride's home, 566 Twenty-sixth street, was tastefully decorated with ferns, palms and white flowers, and white being the colors used. Conspicuous among these floral trimmings was an arbor of palms, where the bridal group stood while Rev. Carver impressively performed the marriage ceremony. Streamers of white satin ribbon were stretched from either corner of the arbor, forming an aisle through the spacious and elegant parlors, each streamer being held by two little nieces of the bride.

Exactly at 5:30 p. m. Mendelssohn's beautiful wedding march, played by Miss Catherine Carnahan, announced the approach of the bride and groom and their attendants. Miss Emma Stevens and Mrs. Sidney O. Stevens, were a dainty dress of green crepe de chine. The bride carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses, while Miss Stevens carried a bouquet of pink asters.

Following congratulations, delicious claret punch and dainty refreshments were served.

The wedding party proceeded to the depot in time to catch the 8 o'clock train, which the happy pair boarded for an eastern visit of two weeks.

The carriage conveying the bride and groom to the station were profusely decorated in white satin ribbons, old shoes and old hats.

None but relatives and a few select friends witnessed the marriage.

Beautiful wedding gifts were given the couple and the bride and groom, as were the well wishes expressed for their future happiness.

On their return from their honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Stevens will receive their friends after Oct. 1 at 556 Twenty-sixth street.

Mrs. Graves has returned from an extended visit in Nebraska.

A farewell party will be given Friday evening in the Third ward institute in honor of Harry W. Nelson, who leaves soon on a mission to Germany.

Mrs. L. B. Adams and daughter, Marie, left yesterday for Cincinnati.

On Friday evening Miss Milla M. and Mr. Archie J. Hall, daughter and grandson of Joseph Hall, returned from a two weeks' visit to Smithfield, Cache county. They were the guests of Samuel Roskelley.

William Lockhead, who has been absent for over two years on a mission to Scotland, returned home Wednesday.

Mrs. F. G. Rice of Pocatello is visiting friends in Ogden.

Mrs. L. T. Davis and children and Mrs. R. A. Davis, who have been the guests of Mrs. G. H. Corse, have returned to their home in St. Louis.

Mrs. Theresa Wheeler, who has been the guest of Mrs. C. Clark, Jr., has returned to her home in Salt Lake.

A farewell dance was given Friday evening in honor of Reuben T. Evans, who leaves soon on a mission to Germany.

Mrs. C. E. Hoyt of Salt Lake, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Orson Riser, has returned to her home.

Mrs. Avery of Butte is visiting Mrs. A. S. Condon.

Miss Meda Carey was hostess in a drive up the canyon Saturday.

Miss Vida Eccles left yesterday for Salt Lake. She is to be a maid of honor at the Elks' carnival.

A jolly crowd indulged in a hay-rack ride Monday evening. They were Misses Vida Eccles, Julia Wright, Florence Gudmundson, Cora Corey, Vera Erickson, Pearl Wyler of Salt Lake, Messrs. Art Cherry, Will James, Orrie Brown, Del Gay, Will Salmon and Rod Ryan.

Craig Thorburn left this week to begin his studies in the law department of the University of Michigan, at Ann Arbor.

Mrs. Northrop and daughter, who have been visiting Mrs. Stewart, have returned to their home at Boise City.

Miss Zannie Cannon left Tuesday for Ann Arbor, Michigan, where she will take a course at the conservatory of music.

N. M. Rulick of Boise was in Ogden Friday.

William Shaw celebrated his 75th birthday last Sunday, having all his children to spend the day with him. During the afternoon a delicious luncheon was served, at which were present Mr. and Mrs. O. N. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Am Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Miller of Harrisville, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Drake, Mr. and Mrs. Orin Badger, Mr. and Mrs. James McFarland and twenty-two of his grandchildren. Among other presents was a handsome arm chair presented by his children. They all retired at an early hour, wishing Mr. Shaw seventy-five more happy birthdays in which they hope to be present.

The hostess was assisted by her daughters, Mrs. E. W. Rhivers and Margaret A. Leek.

Mrs. A. L. Chase has returned from a six weeks' visit to the coast.

Mrs. Kneeland of Iowa is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Gullihur.

Miss Charlotte Rowse and Owen Parsons of Terrance, Okla., were in Ogden Thursday evening at the residence of Judge Joseph Hall by the judge.

A large gathering of members of the Y. M. C. A. of the Fourth ward, Ogden, met at the home of Mrs. Jane S. Anderson, 739 Twenty-second street, on Thursday afternoon. The guests were Messrs. Am Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Miller of Harrisville, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Drake, Mr. and Mrs. Orin Badger, Mr. and Mrs. James McFarland and twenty-two of his grandchildren. Among other presents was a handsome arm chair presented by his children. They all retired at an early hour, wishing Mr. Shaw seventy-five more happy birthdays in which they hope to be present.

The hostess was assisted by her daughters, Mrs. E. W. Rhivers and Margaret A. Leek.

Mrs. A. L. Chase has returned from a six weeks' visit to the coast.

Mrs. Kneeland of Iowa is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Gullihur.

Miss Charlotte Rowse and Owen Parsons of Terrance, Okla., were in Ogden Thursday evening at the residence of Judge Joseph Hall by the judge.

A large gathering of members of the Y. M. C. A. of the Fourth ward, Ogden, met at the home of Mrs. Jane S. Anderson, 739 Twenty-second street, on Thursday afternoon. The guests were Messrs. Am Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Miller of Harrisville, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Drake, Mr. and Mrs. Orin Badger, Mr. and Mrs. James McFarland and twenty-two of his grandchildren. Among other presents was a handsome arm chair presented by his children. They all retired at an early hour, wishing Mr. Shaw seventy-five more happy birthdays in which they hope to be present.

The hostess was assisted by her daughters, Mrs. E. W. Rhivers and Margaret A. Leek.

Mrs. A. L. Chase has returned from a six weeks' visit to the coast.

Mrs. Kneeland of Iowa is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Gullihur.

Miss Charlotte Rowse and Owen Parsons of Terrance, Okla., were in Ogden Thursday evening at the residence of Judge Joseph Hall by the judge.

A large gathering of members of the Y. M. C. A. of the Fourth ward, Ogden, met at the home of Mrs. Jane S. Anderson, 739 Twenty-second street, on Thursday afternoon. The guests were Messrs. Am Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Miller of Harrisville, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Drake, Mr. and Mrs. Orin Badger, Mr. and Mrs. James McFarland and twenty-two of his grandchildren. Among other presents was a handsome arm chair presented by his children. They all retired at an early hour, wishing Mr. Shaw seventy-five more happy birthdays in which they hope to be present.

The hostess was assisted by her daughters, Mrs. E. W. Rhivers and Margaret A. Leek.

Mrs. A. L. Chase has returned from a six weeks' visit to the coast.

Mrs. Kneeland of Iowa is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Gullihur.

Miss Charlotte Rowse and Owen Parsons of Terrance, Okla., were in Ogden Thursday evening at the residence of Judge Joseph Hall by the judge.

A large gathering of members of the Y. M. C. A. of the Fourth ward, Ogden, met at the home of Mrs. Jane S. Anderson, 739 Twenty-second street, on Thursday afternoon. The guests were Messrs. Am Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Miller of Harrisville, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Drake, Mr. and Mrs. Orin Badger, Mr. and Mrs. James McFarland and twenty-two of his grandchildren. Among other presents was a handsome arm chair presented by his children. They all retired at an early hour, wishing Mr. Shaw seventy-five more happy birthdays in which they hope to be present.

The hostess was assisted by her daughters, Mrs. E. W. Rhivers and Margaret A. Leek.

Mrs. A. L. Chase has returned from a six weeks' visit to the coast.

Mrs. Kneeland of Iowa is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Gullihur.

Miss Charlotte Rowse and Owen Parsons of Terrance, Okla., were in Ogden Thursday evening at the residence of Judge Joseph Hall by the judge.

A large gathering of members of the Y. M. C. A. of the Fourth ward, Ogden, met at the home of Mrs. Jane S. Anderson, 739 Twenty-second street, on Thursday afternoon. The guests were Messrs. Am Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Miller of Harrisville, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Drake, Mr. and Mrs. Orin Badger, Mr. and Mrs. James McFarland and twenty-two of his grandchildren. Among other presents was a handsome arm chair presented by his children. They all retired at an early hour, wishing Mr. Shaw seventy-five more happy birthdays in which they hope to be present.

The hostess was assisted by her daughters, Mrs. E. W. Rhivers and Margaret A. Leek.

Mrs. A. L. Chase has returned from a six weeks' visit to the coast.

Mrs. Kneeland of Iowa is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Gullihur.

Miss Charlotte Rowse and Owen Parsons of Terrance, Okla., were in Ogden Thursday evening at the residence of Judge Joseph Hall by the judge.

A large gathering of members of the Y. M. C. A. of the Fourth ward, Ogden, met at the home of Mrs. Jane S. Anderson, 739 Twenty-second street, on Thursday afternoon. The guests were Messrs. Am Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Miller of Harrisville, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Drake, Mr. and Mrs. Orin Badger, Mr. and Mrs. James McFarland and twenty-two of his grandchildren. Among other presents was a handsome arm chair presented by his children. They all retired at an early hour, wishing Mr. Shaw seventy-five more happy birthdays in which they hope to be present.

The hostess was assisted by her daughters, Mrs. E. W. Rhivers and Margaret A. Leek.

Mrs. A. L. Chase has returned from a six weeks' visit to the coast.

Mrs. Kneeland of Iowa is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Gullihur.

Miss Charlotte Rowse and Owen Parsons of Terrance, Okla., were in Ogden Thursday evening at the residence of Judge Joseph Hall by the judge.

A large gathering of members of the Y. M. C. A. of the Fourth ward, Ogden, met at the home of Mrs. Jane S. Anderson, 739 Twenty-second street, on Thursday afternoon. The guests were Messrs. Am Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Miller of Harrisville, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Drake, Mr. and Mrs. Orin Badger, Mr. and Mrs. James McFarland and twenty-two of his grandchildren. Among other presents was a handsome arm chair presented by his children. They all retired at an early hour, wishing Mr. Shaw seventy-five more happy birthdays in which they hope to be present.

The hostess was assisted by her daughters, Mrs. E. W. Rhivers and Margaret A. Leek.

Mrs. A. L. Chase has returned from a six weeks' visit to the coast.

Mrs. Kneeland of Iowa is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Gullihur.

Miss Charlotte Rowse and Owen Parsons of Terrance, Okla., were in Ogden Thursday evening at the residence of Judge Joseph Hall by the judge.

Johns. R. Williams, Ed Paxton, G. H. Schuster, John Noonen, Jack Thompson and C. Wade. The prize winners were: Ladies' first, Miss L. Funk; gentlemen's first, Ed Paxton; consolation, Bert Pope.

Mrs. Mary McIlhenny, after a two months' visit with her son, Ed Pagan, has returned to her home in Watertown, N. Y.

Cards are out for the wedding of Miss Sarah J. Hooper and Sigurd Jensen, of this city. The ceremony will take place at the home of the bride's parents on the 23d of this month.

Miss Marie Sullivan was a passenger to Salt Lake Monday afternoon on a brief visit.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Fox will leave on the 25th of this month on a month's visit to their old home in Baltimore, Md.

The Eastern Star met last Monday and after adjournment coffee and cake were served by the ladies, and a pleasant social time.

Mrs. Tom Fraser leaves Monday morning for an extended visit to her old home in Nova Scotia.

Mrs. Kate Johnson returned to the Park Tuesday with her son, Ed Pagan, with her relatives in Liverpool, England.

Mrs. Mary Judge and daughters returned to Salt Lake Tuesday.

Mrs. Fred W. Hays visited friends in Salt Lake this week.

Thursday night Mr. and Mrs. Walter Scott gave a charming informal party at their home in honor of their twenty-first wedding anniversary. The home was beautifully decorated with rare plants and fragrant flowers. The guests were not informed that the affair was in honor of the anniversary of the host and hostess' marriage until their arrival, and were therefore pleasantly surprised. The evening was spent in playing cards, the prize winners being Mr. and Mrs. L. Learn. Choice refreshments were served, including a large and handsome candy wedding cake, which was admitted and devoured with a relish. It was a happy event and many were the well wishes for the popular couple. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith of Muskegon, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. L. Learn, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Lamb, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shields, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Blocher, Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Le Compte and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith.

With Mrs. C. M. Wilson, the new president, at the helm and at her home, the Woman's Atheneum had a feast of "Unleavened Bread," ice cream and cake, artistic musical numbers and an unusually enjoyable social time. A piano duet by Mrs. Emma Kelson and Miss Kathryn Malone. Vocal solo by Mrs. W. G. Lamb. Piano solo by Mrs. Emma Kelson. Mrs. Dart's review of "Unleavened Bread" by Robert D. Grant, was listened to with attention. The club adjourned by singing "America," to meet with Mrs. Walter Scott Monday, Sept. 17.

On the 6th inst. Miss Florence Richards was united in marriage to Mr. E. A. Boggs at Boise. The young lady is a niece of Mr. and Mrs. J. McKay and formerly lived in Park City.

Mrs. W. G. Lamb and Mrs. Charles Shields will be the guests of Mrs. Bradford of Salt Lake all of next week.

Thursday night Mr. and Mrs. Blacker delightfully entertained at dinner in honor of Miss Essie Bailey of Salt Lake.

Friday afternoon Miss Julius Frankel gave a Kensington at her home. Mrs. Frank Smith and Miss Bain were prize winners. The guests were Messrs. Hurlbut, Townsend, Middeau, Blocher, Smith, Cross, Williams, Thomson, Leonard, Misses Bain, Pearson, Gray and Cross.

This morning a party comprised of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Blocher, Messrs. Bain, Watson, Groesbeck and Messrs. G. D. Blood, Kanter and Colbath went over to Brighton on horseback to spend the day.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Johnson and family left this afternoon for Idaho, where they will make a future home.

Mrs. M. D. Hurlbut and Miss Jessie Hurlbut returned from Salt Lake this morning.

Last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Blocher, Miss Groesbeck, Miss Bain and Messrs. Kanter, Groesbeck and Colbath, at a little lake a few miles below Snyderville.

Rev. H. L. McMenamine of Colorado Springs was in the Park Monday last and was the guest of Miss Mayme McSorley.

Friday was organization day in the societies of the upper grades of the public schools. In the high school the Columbian elected Sam Bain, president; Jerry Harrington, vice president; Flossie Carpenter, secretary; Frank Shields, assistant secretary; Kathryn Cunningham, treasurer; Leonard, sergeant-at-arms; Mary McDonald and Claire Stevenson, programme committee. The officers of the Philadelphians were: Eva Lambert, president; Fred Cook, vice president; Willard McClelland, secretary; Lillian Hedges, treasurer; Hannah Le Compte, Ellen Crossman and Harry Freeman, programme committee. The Hawthorne society in the Eighth grade elected the following: John Thomson, president; George Richardson, vice president; Joe Crossman, secretary; Thomas Roberts, sergeant-at-arms; Laura Townsend, Winnie Jennings and Bert Hartwell, programme committee. In the Seventh grade the Lincoln society elected Mark Wright, president; Hazel Lenzi, vice president; Hattie Baker, secretary, and Annie Feeney, editor.

Mrs. M. M. F. Allen, accompanied by her father, Colonel William M. Perry, were passengers to Salt Lake Tuesday.

After a week's visit with her mother in Salt Lake, Mrs. L. P. Compton returned to the Park Wednesday.